Sunflowers are a favorite article of diet in some parts of Russia.

Anstemiously is said to be the longest word in which the vowels occur, once each, in alphabetical order.

The world's babies born every twenty-four hours are more than sufficient to repopulate a city of the size of Houston or Duluth.

If there was but one potato left in the world, a careful cultivator might produce 10,000,000,000 from it in ten years, and thus supply the world with seed again.

In Cambridge, England, is has been the custom for centuries to sell butter by the yard. Each length weighs a pound, and is wrapped in a strip of clean white cloth.

England's latest and greatest battleship has kitchens that can serve fourteen hundred meals in ten minutes and a bakery capable of turning out fourteen hundred pounds of bread daily.

In a waltzing-match which took place in Italy a few years ago eight couples completed, and commenced to dance at ten o'clock on Sunday evening. Nobody ceased until compelled by exhaustion at and midway on Monday two couples were still staggering around the room.

COUNTERFEIT STAMP HAS MUMPS.

Postmaster, Red Ash, today issued a warning to thrifty persons hereabouts to be on their guard against buying counterfeit War Savings Stamps. Fraudulent blue stamps of the 1919 series have been made by counterfeiters, the postmaster has been advised, and are being sold to the unwary.

"But the frauds can be easily detected," the postmaster said. "Ben Franklin's picture appears on the stamp, and in the counterfeit stamp, old Ben seems to have the mumps in his left jaw. Indeed, there is a pronounced swelling. Then under the portrait the lower of the two left dots is comparatively indistinct, and the vertical opening between the lines in the lower left part of the numeral '2' in the date '1920' is closed. The principal feature of the fraud, however, is the swollen cheek."

"It should be remembered that the counterfeit is only of the 1919 series, and, like the original, is blue. Blue War Savings Stamps can no longer be bought from post offices or other authorized agencies. Only the 1920 stamps, which are red, are now being sold by agencies. Sale of last year's stamps are not legal. No one should buy a 1919 stamp, though it is true that some have been improperly offered for sale."

"Everyone who bought 1919 stamps last year may feel perfectly safe," the postmaster said in conclusion, "because the counterfeit was not made until after the first of this year. The blue stamp had been withdrawn from sale by the authorized agencies, and the red 1920 stamp was being sold. Don't buy any 1919 stamps and keep a look out for the picture of the man with the mumps. If you see one let me know."

Salvation Army finds missing people.

Richmond, Va., April 31.—The work of seeking and finding missing persons, carried on by the Salvation Army through its department of inquiry and investigation, has increased more than 100 per cent since the cessation of hostilities in Europe, according to statistics received at the headquarters of the Army in Richmond.

Thirty-three persons who had been lost to their friends and families were located by the department of investigation and inquiry of The Salvation Army in New York City during the month of March. This is regarded as a record by the officers in charge of the bureau, for as cases go missing persons are hard to find. Some time the workers are asked to trace persons who have not been heard from in 10 or 12 years and concerning whom absolutely nothing is known.

The American branch of this work handles more than 3,000 cases annually, while the international department in London reports that last year it dealt with 100,000 requests. The labors and facilities of this branch of the Salvation Army's vast undertakings are open to any one. Those in charge of them urge that individuals seeking information of any sort regarding friends or relatives allow this bureau to help.

Each of the last five presidents of the United States has seen fit publicly to invite the attention of the nation to the Salvation Army and its work for "the betterment of humanity and the making of bad citizens into good ones." As President Wilson put it, President Roosevelt praised the Army for "working effectively in those dark regions where, save for its force, only evil is powerful." President Taft asserted that its "practical methods of charity are of the highest usefulness."

Andrew Walker, of Bloomfield, a Christian Scientist, was convicted on Monday of manslaughter, and fined $1000.00. Walker's 9-year old daughter died of diphtheria. He declined to send for a physician depending upon Christian Science "treatment."

Mr. Taft in an address in Chicago, on the 10th, termed Mr. Wilson an "obstructionist." The Lodge reservations, said Mr. Taft, "leave the treaty nearly as effective as it is without them."

"Mr. Wilson is the greatest obstructionist in Washington. Article X is not destroyed but only limited by the reservations."

Mr. Bryan said, on the 10th, that Mr. Wilson's opposition to ratification was because he had not been fully informed, owing to his long illness. "Broken down in health by the weight of cares and anxieties such as have fallen to no other occupant of that high office, the Chief Executive has been denied the information essential to sound judgment and safe leadership," said Mr. Bryan. "Democratic friends of the League of Nations should join Republican friends of the League and take the issue out of the campaign and sneak peace to war-distracted Europe," he said.

The soldiers bonus bill will not pass at this session of Congress. The politicians seem to be in doubt as to its effect the next election.

The New York World, a strange champion of the candidacy of Mr. Hoover in the beginning, has "got cold feet," and withdrawn its support since Mr. Hoover allied himself with Republican partisan politics.

RESOLUTIONS.

In as much as the Supreme Architect of the universe hath been pleased to remove from our midst our esteemed co-laborer and Brother R. W. Witter, who for many years among us bore a name and character untarnished, and a reputation above reproach. Therefore we, the members of Pocahontas Lodge No. 240, A. F. and A. M. in communication assembled, do resolve.

That in the death of our Brother we have sustained the loss of a friend, whose fellowship it was an honor and a real pleasure to enjoy; that we bear willing testimony to his

Big Value in Tires for The Smaller Cars

Back of the manufacture of Goodyear Tires for the smaller cars is the same purpose to supply high value in the product that is behind the manufacture of the Goodyear Tires that equip the most expensive automobiles built.

This purpose is expressed by the enormous resources, extraordinary skill and scrupulous care applied to the manufacture of Goodyear Tires in the largest tire factory in the world devoted solely to the 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch sizes.

The effect of this endeavor is noted in the fact that last year more cars using these sizes were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

It is also noted in the fact that if you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other car requiring one of the sizes mentioned, you can secure Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at the nearest Goodyear Service Station.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water-proof bag $4.50
